

| Wednesday 19 April | | | | |
|--------------------|---|---|---|--|
| 17:00-19:00 | Registration | | | |
| Thursday, 20 April | | | | |
| | Auditorium | H140 | H135a | H135b |
| 08:00-9:15 | Registration | | | |
| 09:15-9:30 | Opening of the conference | | | |
| 9:30-10:30 | Plenary 1: Raymond Gibbs. Metaphor and the automatic mind (Marlene Johansson Falck) | | | |
| 10:30-11:00 | Fika | | | |
| | Motion semantics (Iraide Ibarretxe-Antunano) | Atypical language-cognition 1 (Line Burholt Kristensen) | Multimodality and signed languages (Peer Christiansen) | Cross-cultural communication (Esa Penttilä) |
| 11:00-11:30 | The impact of horizontal and vertical motion on the structure of motion expressions in Estonian Piia Taremaa | Narrating strange stories: structural language impairments and internal state reference in ASD Jens Sand Østergaard | Recruiting gesture to express epistemic modality in a sign language Elisabeth Engberg-Pedersen | Cognitive aspects of translation as cross-cultural communication Nikolay Boldyrev |
| 11:30-12:00 | Relaxing the "boundary-crossing constraint" in (supposedly) verb framed languages Viswanatha Naidu, Simon Devylder and Jordan Zlatev | Comprehension of factive and non-factive embedding in aphasia Vitor Zimmerer, Rosemary Varley, Felicity Deamer and Wolfram Hinzen | Multimodal prominences: How eyebrow and head beats are combined with pitch accents to encode information structure in Swedish news readings Gilbert Ambrazaitis and David House | A Cognitive Insight into the Translator's Visibility Kseniya Leontyeva |
| 12:00-12:30 | | Syntactic mediation of social cognition: Complement clauses and perspective taking in children with autism Ditte Boeg Thomsen | Expressing time in space: Temporal expressions in Swedish Sign Language Anna-Lena Nilsson | |
| 12:30-13:30 | Lunch | | | |
| | Lexicon and grammar (Tore Nessel) | Atypical language-cognition 2 (Ivana Bianchi) | Multimodality and metaphor (Marlene Johansson Falck) | Psycholinguistics 1 (Anneli Pajunen) |
| 13:30-14:00 | The grammar-lexicon distinction Sarah Rosenbech Nielsen, Violaine Michel Lange, Maria Messerschmidt, Peter Harder and Kasper Boye | Language and thought under conditions of subcortical neurodegeneration: new insights from Huntington's disease Wolfram Hinzen, Cati Morey, Joana Rossello, Raymond Salvador, Clara García-Gorro, Estela Camara and Ruth De Diego Balaguer | Axiological ambiguity of the CONTAINER schema in multimodal discourses of collective memory Malgorzata Fabiszak | When word order affects word recognition Line Burholt Kristensen and Dorothea Wendt |
| 14:00-14:30 | Motivation and idiosyncrasy in construction grammar Wojciech Lewandowski | Linguistic dimensions of cognitive decline in Huntington's disease Antonia Tovar, Jesús Ruiz-Idiago, Celia Mareca, Edith Pomarol-Clotet, Aina Gari, Vitor Zimmerer, Pedro Roy-Millán, Joana Rossello and Wolfram Hinzen | Metaphoric meaning making and multimodality in films: An expressive movement model approach Jose Manuel Ureña | Evaluating the performance of a Naïve Discriminative Learner as a classifier for predicting the choice between constructional alternations Jane Klavan and Arvi Tavast |
| 14:30-15:00 | | Antonym knowledge in children with language impairment - testing the semantic domain theory Kristina Hansson, Ketty Holmström, Siri De Geer and Peter Gärdenfors | Spatial metaphors for musical pitch in speech and gesture: Evidence from Swedish and Turkish Peer Christensen and Marianne Gullberg | Expecting the expected: Semantic incongruities are judged differently depending on the source during sentence judgment task Alexander Strukelj, Richard Andersson and Carita Paradis |
| 15:00-15:30 | Fika | | | |
| | Theme session: Opposites (Linden Ball) | Metaphor (Carita Lundmark) | Multimodality and sound symbolism (Mark Dingemans) | Cognitive typology (Tiina Onikki-Rantajääskö) |
| 15:30-16:00 | Are all opposites equal? If not, why not? Carita Paradis and Joost van de Weijer | Extended primary metaphors: A case of cognitive economy? Annika Hillbom | Perceptual and symbolic adaptations in prehistoric semiotic behavior Kristian Tylén Sergio Gonzalez de La Higuera Rojo, Katrin Heimann and Riccardo Fusaroli | Morphological transitives in Spanish and Danish – a typological perspective Wojciech Lewandowski and Johan Pedersen |
| 16:00-16:30 | Same opposites, different processing routes and pleasing effects: the Case of Default and Nondefault Sarcasm Rachel Giora, Shir Givoni, Vared Heruti, Ofer Fein | Us and them in the Finnish and British media context: A look into metaphorical language Esa Penttilä | An Auditory-Visual Selectional Restriction on the Formation of Mimetic Verbs in Japanese Yukio Takahashi | The Cross-Linguistic and Conceptual Role of the Adverb Category Pernilla Hallonsten Halling |
| 16:30-17:00 | Can contraries facilitate insight solutions in problem solving? Erika Branchini, Ugo Savardi and Linden Ball | The Semantics of "Violence": Ethnoembodiment and Postcolonial Cognition Carsten Levisen | The building blocks of sound symbolism Niklas Johansson | Points of controversy in typological linguistics: iconicity, causality, frequency, zero, empathy Esa Itkonen |
| 17:00-18:00 | Plenary 2: Ivana Bianchi. The perception and cognition of opposites (Carita Paradis) | | | |
| 18:00-20:00 | Poster session* + Wine reception | | | |

| Friday, 21 April | | | | |
|------------------|--|---|---|--|
| | Auditorium | H140 | H135a | H135b |
| 9:00-10:00 | Plenary 3: Joanna Raczaszek-Leonardi. Ungrounding symbols in development (Kristian Tylén) | | | |
| | Theme session: Metaphor and (Un)consciousness (Ray Gibbs) | Psycholinguistics 2 (Kristian Tylén) | Constructions (Piotr Konderak) | Aspect and verbs (Esa Itkonen) |
| 10:00-10:30 | What Does it Take to be Conscious of Metaphor and Irony Herbert Colston | De-polarizing ironic utterance: ironic cognition in adults and younger participants Carla Canestrari and Ivana Bianchi | On the role of argument structure constructions in Romance – a cross-linguistic perspective Johan Pedersen and Caterina Guardamagna | Russian Verbs Across Aspect and Genre Laura Janda, Hanne M Eckhoff and Olga Lyashevskaya |
| 10:30-11:00 | Modeling metaphor and consciousness: A view from DMT Gerard Steen | Can you play with fire and not hurt yourself? A comparative study in idiom comprehension between individuals with and without Autism Spectrum Disorder Mila Vulchanova, Sobh Chahboun, Valentin Vulchanov, Rik Eshuis and David Saldaña | Lexis and constructions as structure-assigning entities – theoretical and usage-based considerations Mikko Höglund | Conceptualizing Aspect in Slavic: Evidence from Aktionsart and Narrative Sequences in Russian Svetlana Sokolova, Elena Petrukhina and Dmitrij Egorov |
| 11:00-11:30 | Fika | | | |
| 11:30-12:00 | When Literal Meaning is Cognitively Active in Metaphor Comprehension: An Inflated Relevance-Theoretic Approach Zsafia Zvolenszky | One brain, one language, two codes? The curious case of Norwegian Viktoria Havas and Mila Vulchanova | Language Change, Cognitive Linguistics and Russian Numeral Constructions: Corpus Data vs. Experimental Data Tore Nessel and Maria Nordrum | The cognitive foundations of situation type (events vs. states) Simone Alex-Ruf |
| 12:00-12:30 | Minds as (Introspectible) Containers? Demonstrating a New Minimal-Analogy Approach to Extended Metaphor Eugen Fischer and John Barnden | Semantic network of word-association sequences in Japanese and Swedish Misuzu Shimotori | Productivity in the constructional network: The Dutch intensifying fake reflexive resultative construction Emmeline Gyselincx and Timothy Colleman | What makes a meaning? The case of the Estonian perception verb nägema 'to see' Mariann Proos |
| 12:30-13:30 | Lunch | | | |
| | Theme session: Metaphor (cont) | Psycholinguistics 2 (Mila Vulchanova) | Language learning (Peter Gärdenfors) | Language and culture (Nokolay Boldyrev) |
| 13:30-14:00 | The Paradox of Metaphor and the Varieties of Conscious Experience Raymond Gibbs | To know or not to know. Testing the Ambiguity Hypothesis of Sapere in Italian Roberta Colonna Dahlman and Joost van de Weijer | Applied Cognitive Linguistics in the EFL Classroom – Introducing New Vocabulary Through Prototype Theory Andreas Wirag | With the Negev in Mind: Landscape in Language and Cognition. A Cross-generational Study on Negev Arabic Letizia Cerqueglini |
| 14:00-14:30 | Discussion of theme session | Pauses during text writing as a window to linguistic and cognitive development Victoria Johansson, Pia Gustafsson and Johan Frid | The earlier, the better? On the role of individual differences in younger vs. older primary school Danish learners of English Katalin Fenyvesi, Mikkel Hansen and Teresa Cadierno | Noli me tangere? – a corpus-based study of the role of touch in the metaphorization of the mental phenomena in English and Polish Marcin Trojczak |
| 14:30-15:00 | Fika | | | |
| | Metaphor (Ulf Magnusson) | Analogy (Mila Vulchanova) | Syntax and cognition (Peter Gärdenfors) | Language and culture (cont) |
| 15:00-15:30 | Converted verbs, metaphorical language and ecological cognition Marlene Johansson Falck and Carita Lundmark | A role for analogy in second language teaching: Written analogical corrective feedback in the EFL classroom Kavita Thomas | Lexical and syntactic development of children, adolescents, and young adults Anneli Pajunen and Seppo Vainio | What gets resonated and why? Dialogic resonance in the London-Lund Corpus 2 Nele Pöldvere and Carita Paradis |
| 15:30-16:00 | Metaphors are primarily signs and not conceptual mappings Jordan Zlatev, Elena Faur and Göran Sonesson | Is Rolls Royce the paragon of brand names? Brand name analogies and brand name genericisation Anu Koskela | Syntax influences lateralized imagery for sentences Sofia Stroustrup and Mikkel Wallentin | Navajo students' culture/worldview and its possible relations to their writing anxiety Yi-Wen Huang |
| 16:00-17:00 | General Assembly - for all participants | | | |
| 17:00-18:00 | Plenary 4: Mark Dingemans. Iconicity in language: form, meaning and use (Simon Devylder) | | | |
| 19:00-22:00 | Conference dinner | | | |

| Saturday 22 April | | | | |
|------------------------------|--|---|--|--|
| | Auditorium | H140 | H135a | H135b |
| 09:00-10:00 | Plenary 5: Iraide Ibarretxe-Antunano & Rosario Caballero. Much more than motion events: theoretical and applied challenges (Carita Lundmark) | | | |
| 09:30-10:00 | Theme session: Psychotherapy (Joanna Raczaszek-Leonardi) | Interaction and evolution (Joost van de Weijer) | Embodied and extended mind (Göran Sonesson) | Metaphors in use (Rosario Caballero) |
| 10:00-10:30 | An ecological approach to psychotherapy Thomas Wiben Jensen, Sarah Trasmundi and Line Worsøe | The effects of presenting oncologic information in terms of opposites in a medical context Ivana Bianchi, Roberto Burro and Ugo Savardi | Language in Extended Cognition Piotr Konderak | Using a dictionary to identify metaphors in historical data: Questions and challenges Heli Tissari |
| 10:30-11:00 | Human interaction dynamics during psychotherapy: Challenges and solutions Travis J. Wiltshire, Johanne Stege Philipsen and Sune Vork Steffensen | Parallels between vowel systems and musical scales from an evolutionary perspective Gertraud Fenk-Oczlon | How deep must a dead metaphor be buried? The language, experience, and sedimentation of non-actual separation Simon Devylder, Jordan Zlatev and Johan Blomberg | Concreteness ratings meet metaphoricality Gudrun Reijnierse and Marianna Bolognesi |
| 11:00-11:30 | Fika | | | |
| 11:30-12:00 | Discussion of theme session | Interaction, cognitive diversity and abstraction Kristian Tylén, Riccardo Fusaroli, Pernille Smith and Jakob Arnoldi | Focusing on embodiment: A case study in Cognitive text linguistics Tiina Onikki-Rantajääskö and Minna Jaakola | When linguistics and political science come together: Measuring the impact of deliberately used metaphors on citizens' perception of and opinions on political issues Pauline Heyvaert, Audrey Vandeleene, Thomas Legein, Frédérique Depas, Jérémy Dodeigne, Julien Perrez and Min Reuchamps |
| 12:00-12:30 | | Some remarks on the change of deictic systems in spoken Lithuanian Gintarė Judžentytė | What We Think About When We Talk About Money: Conceptual Blending, Distributed Cognition and the Amalgamated Mind Todd Oakley | Beyond War Metaphors in Cancer Discourse Oana David |
| 12:30-13:30 | Lunch | | | |
| 13:30-14:30 | Plenary 6: Dirk Geeraerts. What's your philosophy? The phenomenological tradition and Cognitive Linguistics (Jordan Zlatev) | | | |
| 14:30-14:45 | Concluding remarks | | | |
| *Poster presentations | Keatsian Emotional Force-Dynamics: A Metaphorical, Metonymical and Grammatical Analysis Katrina Brannon | The Development of Writing Skills in a Foreign Language Elena Kazakova | The role of so-called "frozen metaphors" as effective persuasive devices in political discourse (in France, Spain, and the US) Liane Stroebel | N.B. Poster presentations will be during the wine reception on Thursday at 18:00. Each presenter will receive 3 minutes to present their work. |
| | Literary Translation and Generic Shifts: Irving's Legends in the Russian Language Natalia Tuliakova | Polysemy of cut and break-type Verbs in Lithuanian: its Perception and Equivalency Vilma Zubaitienė | | |