

GLOW 36 Workshop IV – Acquisition of Syntax in Close Varieties (Saturday 6 April, 2013)

Venue: L201¹

09.00-12.00 Registration open – Please register

9:30-10:00 Petra Bernardini (Lund)
The importance of typological proximity for the acquisition of clitic objects in Italian/French in simultaneous vs. successive bilingualism

10:00-10:30 Marit Westergaard and Merete Anderssen (Tromsø)
Word order and definiteness in the Norwegian DP: Complexity, frequency and structural similarity in bilingual acquisition and attrition

10:30-11:00 Coffee/Tea Break

11:00-11:30 Kristine Bentzen (Tromsø)
Cross-linguistic influence and structural overlap affecting English verb placement

11:30-12:00 Susan Sayehli (Lund)
Morpho-syntactic transfer in L3 acquisition

12:00-13:30 LUNCH

13:30-14:00: Artemis Alexiadou/Katerina Zombolou (Stuttgart)
The acquisition of reflexives and anticausatives by young heritage bilingual German-Turkish and German-Russian children

14:00-14:30 Margreet von Koert, Olaf Koeneman, Fred Weerman and Aafke Hulk (Amsterdam)
The quantification asymmetry as a language-specific phenomenon

14:30-15:00 Coffee/Tea break

15:00-15:30 Öner Özçelik (Indiana)
Selectivity in L3 transfer: effects of typological and linguistic similarity in the L3 Turkish of Uzbek-Russian bilinguals

15:30-16:00 Oksana Laleko/Maria Polinsky (State University of New York/Harvard)
Topic vs. case marking in Japanese and Korean: Comparing heritage speakers and second language learners

16:00-16:30 Break

16:30-18:00 Plenary: Anna Cardinaletti (Venice)
On the bilingual acquisition of Italian and Venetan dialects: A focus on subject and object clitic pronouns

¹ L = the Linguist building, 201 = Floor 2, room 201